Information for the student:

All art supplies will be provided by the instructor.
Students may also bring their own favorite supplies, if they wish.

Students should pack a lunch and their favorite snacks or, as we like to call it, "Art Fuel".
Being a "starving artist" is not as romantic as it sounds.

Students should wear comfortable clothes that they don't mind getting stained by ink and paint.
Making art is a messy business.

Bring your imagination and come prepared to learn!

See you there!
